Children in Need 2020 by Emily Murphy - Head Girl

To celebrate the 40th anniversary of Children in Need the BBC have still got amazing fundraising events despite COVID. With Joe Wicks completing a 24-hour fitness challenge, today the children participated in a sporty day, donating lots of money to Children In Need and doing fun sporting activities.

Thankyou everybody for your amazing donations ! As we all know, it can change lives !

Rapid Rockstars

This week, KS2 have been taking part in a national competition on Times Tables Rock Stars to become the ultimate rock star! They have been competing in classes and individually against the rest of the school and other schools from across England. The winner will be the child who has averaged the most correct answers. Look out for the results in next week's Hartburn Herald

Congratulations Mrs Patel on the birth of your son, Reuben.

Both Mum and baby are doing well and we send all our love. ❤️

Virtual Author Visit By Autumn Burke —Deputy Head Girl

This week children in our school have been talking to an author called Onjai Q Rauf. Unfortunately due to Covid we could not meet her in person. Luckily we had a Zoom meeting with her!

She bases her books on homeless people or refugees because she has been inspired by many on her way to becoming an author. She has written some amazing books. One of them is 'The Boy at the Back of the Bus'

Meet Hartburn's Sport Leaders

Jude, Elijah, George, Hana and Ava are from Year 4.

Lyla, Rosie, Ruby, Dexter, Joseph and Theo are from Year 5. They are all excited about their new role and are looking forward to organising some fun, physical activities for Hartburn.

Parliament Week

Last week, we celebrated Parliament Week throughout school. KS2 took part in a live lesson to launch the week, learning about Parliament.

Throughout the week, children took part in debating and discussions. They also created some beautiful artwork.

Sir Skallywag

by Ailsa Jones Y2

Sir Skallywag has short curly hair.

He is a noble boy.

He has a large feather in his helmet.

Sir Skallywag wears bright, shiny silver armour and he wears spiky shoes.

He also carry's his lance.

He has a golden smile on his face every day.

He is a kind knight to everyone except his enemies.

His eyes sparkle like the blue sky.

He marches like soldiers.

He is 6 years old.

Hartburn Alumni

Tomorrow is a very exciting day for one of Hartburn Primary School's former pupils, Ben Stevenson.

Ben has been named in the starting line up to play rugby for the Newcastle Falcons against Ealing Trailfinders at Kingston Park at 3pm. We wish Ben every success in this important home game. Go Falcons !

Puffins 30th Birthday by Evan Linacre—Head Boy

On the 13th November we watched Puffins 30th Birthday. First we listened to Tom Fletcher reading the 'Danger Gang'. Then we drew a puffin. After that we had a tour around the 'Diary of a Wimpy Kid' authors studio. After that we got 3 tips on how to write a book. Then we listened to Humsa Khan. Those are just some of the things we did.
