PSHE VISION

At Hartburn Primary School Personal, Social and Health Education (PHSE) enables our children to become healthy, independent and responsible members of both our local community and society as whole.

Our intent is to help all of our pupils to understand how they are developing both personally and socially and to tackle many of the moral, social and cultural issues that are part of growing up enabling them to develop healthy, safe relationships. We strive to provide our children with learning opportunities across and beyond the curriculum, allowing them to learn about rights and responsibilities, encouraging them to challenge ideas and voice their opinions in a safe environment.

The culture of 'Learning for Life' that permeates across our whole school focuses on equipping children with the key life skills they will require to be part of the diverse and rapidly changing society we live in. We aim to prepare them for the world of work and support them in developing enterprise skills and financial awareness. We encourage the development of characteristics for life such as a love of learning, resilience, integrity, team work, critical thinking and independence.

Our children are encouraged to be proud and to develop their sense of self-worth by playing a positive role in contributing to school life and the wider Hartburn community.

We believe that the pupils at Hartburn Primary School deserve to leave our school as confident, responsible, caring and enquiring individuals who are well prepared for life in modern Britain.

AIMS

We believe that effective Relationships and Sex Education should be taught within a broader PHSE programme. Relationships and Sex Education enhances and is enhanced by learning related to topics including anti-bullying; keeping safe on and offline; keeping physically and mentally healthy; learning about drugs, alcohol and tobacco; and the development of skills and attributes such as communication skills, managing peer pressure, risk management, resilience and decision making.

PHSE and RSE at Hartburn Primary School aims to:

- Give pupils the knowledge, confidence and self-awareness to make informed choices and decisions.
- Prepare pupils for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life.
- Encourage pupils to value themselves and others.

- Allow pupils to acknowledge and appreciate difference and diversity.
- Prepare pupils to be positive and active members of a democratic society.
- Teach pupils to understand what constitutes a safe and healthy lifestyle.
- Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place.
- Promote safety in forming and maintaining relationships.
- Provide pupils with a toolkit for understanding and managing their emotions.
- Help pupils develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy.
- Provide pupils with the opportunities to consider issues which may affect their own lives and/or the lives of others.
- Help pupils to identify the characteristics of healthy relationships, how relationships may affect mental and physical health; and how to stay safe online.
- Create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships.
- Teach pupils the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies.
- Prepare pupils for puberty, and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene.

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS

We must provide Relationships Education to all pupils as per section 34 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017. We are not required to teach Sex Education but must teach the elements of Sex Education contained in the Science Curriculum. In teaching RSE, we must have regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State as outlined in Section 403 of the Education Act 1996 and from September 2020 will follow new statutory guidance.

POLICY DEVELOPMENT

This policy has been developed in consultation with staff, pupils and parents. The consultation and policy development process involved the following steps:

1. Review of all relevant information including national and local guidance.
2. Staff consultation- all school staff were given the opportunity to look at the policy and make recommendations.
3. Parent Consultation- parents and any interested parties were invited to make comment about the policy.
4. Ratification- the policy was shared and reviewed by governors before approval by the full Governing Body.

DEFINITION

RSE is part of lifelong learning about the emotional, social and physical aspects of growing up, relationships, healthy lifestyles, personal safety, diversity and personal identity development. RSE, within PHSE, aims to give children and young people essential skills for building positive, enjoyable, respectful and non-exploitive relationships and the skills to stay safe both on and offline. It enables pupils to explore their own and other's attitudes and values and builds their self-esteem and confidence to view their own sexuality positively. RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity.

CURRICULUM

Our PHSE curriculum is set out as per Appendix 1 and the progression of knowledge in Appendix 2. The Relationships and Sex Education elements are contained within this. We have also made explicit the progression in vocabulary and terminology that will be used as children move through school (Appendix 2). We reserve the right to adapt our curriculum in response to ongoing assessment as and when necessary. We have reviewed our curriculum in response to recent guidance and legislation, taking into account the age and needs of our pupils. If pupils ask questions outside the scope of this policy teachers will respond in an appropriate manner so they are fully informed and do not seek answers online.

DELIVERY OF PHSE AND RELATIONSHIPS AND SEX EDUCATION

RSE is taught within the PHSE curriculum and some biological aspects of sex education are taught within the science curriculum. It is delivered by class teachers. We have developed a PHSE scheme of work for years 1-6 which incorporates all aspects of the RSE curriculum.

National Curriculum Science includes some sex and relationship education. From Sept 2014, Primary Science includes pupils learning about;

- the parts of the body, growth, reproduction, life cycles and ageing;
- changes that occur in puberty (Y4, 5 and 6)

All areas of learning will be taught within the context of family life taking care to ensure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances. Families can include single parent families, LGBT parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents and foster parents/carers. We will also reflect sensitively that some children may have a different structure of support around them, for example; looked after children or young carers.

PUPILS WITH SEND

As far as is appropriate, pupils with special educational needs should follow the same PHSE curriculum as all other pupils. Careful consideration is given concerning the level of differentiation needed, and in some cases the content or delivery will need to be adapted. Teachers and/or learning support assistants will work with individual pupils when required, and if appropriate.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The governing body will approve the PHSE and RSE policy, and hold the Head Teacher to account for its implementation. The Head Teacher is responsible for ensuring that PHSE and RSE is taught consistently across the school, and for managing requests to withdraw pupils from non-statutory components of RSE.

STAFF

Staff are responsible for;

- Delivering PHSE and RSE in a sensitive way
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSE
- Monitoring progress
- Responding to the needs of individual pupils
- Responding appropriately to pupils whose parents wish them to be withdrawn from the non-statutory components of RSE.

Staff do not have the right to opt out of teaching PHSE or RSE. Staff who have concerns about teaching RSE are encouraged to discuss this with the Head Teacher.

PUPILS

Pupils are expected to engage fully in PHSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity.

PARENTAL RIGHT TO WITHDRAW

Parents do not have the right to withdraw their children from Relationships Education but do have the right to withdraw their children from the non-statutory components of sex education within RSE. Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing and addressed to the Head Teacher. Alternative work will be provided for children who are withdrawn from sex education.

TRAINING

Staff are trained on the delivery of PHSE and RSE as part of their induction and it is included in our continuing professional development calendar. The Head Teacher will also invite visitors from outside school to provide support and training to staff teaching RSE.

MONITORING ARRANGEMENTS

The delivery of PHSE and RSE is monitored by the Head Teacher and Jill Adams (PHSE/RSE Lead) through lesson observations, learning walks, staff and pupil voice etc

Pupils' development in PHSE and RSE is monitored by class teachers as part of our internal assessment systems.

The policy will be reviewed by the Head Teacher and each review will be approved by the Governing Body.
