Thankyou for all your kind donations today for Red Nose Day. The children looked fab in their red clothes and accessories and have had lots of fun.

Miss Hoskin's English class had great fun writing adventure stories about their red noses for Red Nose Day. There was lots of imagination, sentence types, speech and sunshine!

Girls from Y3,Y4 and Y5 had a brilliant afternoon at the Football Festival last week.

They learned a lot of new skills through taking part in fun activities.

An enormous congratulations to Ruby and Harriet who raised over £200 for Ukraine. We are so proud of the compassion that you have shown. Matt Vickers(the local MP) was so delighted with their effort that he wrote them a thank you letter.

Article 17—Access to Information

Children have the right to get information from the Internet, radio, television, newspapers, books and other sources. Adults should make sure the information they are getting is not harmful. Governments should encourage the media to share information from lots of different sources, in languages that all children can understand.

Iris and Arthur are looking after our new fruit trees extremely well: they are watering them every day until they can establish themselves and get their roots deep into the soil.

Demolition, Death & Disaster

Italy experienced a 6.2 Magnitude Earthquake.

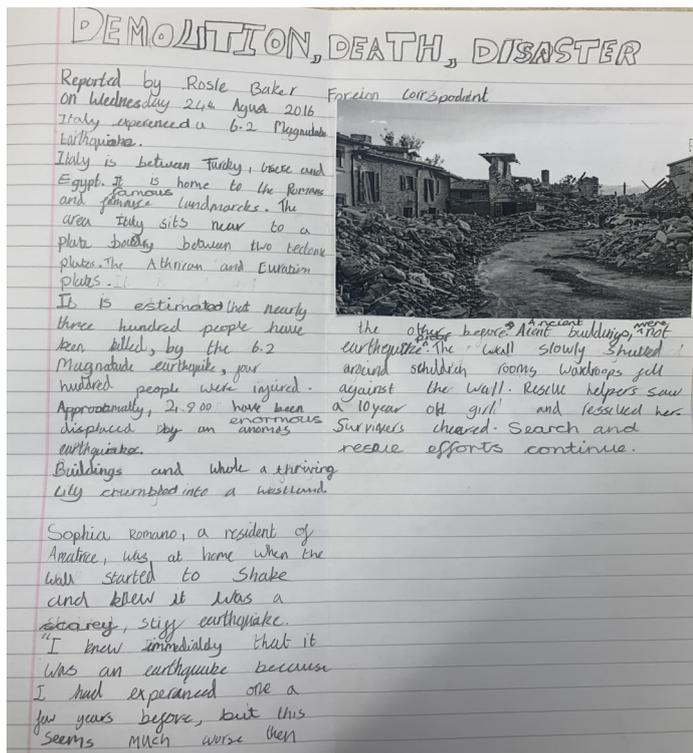

Italy is between Turkey, Greece and Egypt. It is home to the pyramids and famous landmarks. The area they sit is near to a plate boundary between two tectonic plates. The African and Eurasian plates.

It is estimated that nearly three hundred people have been killed, by the 6.2 Magnitude earthquake, four hundred people were injured. Approximately 2,500 have been displaced by an enormous earthquake.

Buildings and whole a spiring tly crumbled into a wasteland.

the other have Ancient buildings, not earthquakes. The wall slowly shuddered around children's rooms. Windows fell against the wall. Rescue helpers saw a 10 year old girl and rescued her. Survivors cheered. Search and rescue efforts continue.

Sophia Romano, a resident of Amatrice, was at home when the wall started to shake and blew it was a scary, stiff earthquake. "I knew immediately that it was an earthquake because I had experienced one a few years before, but this seems much worse than
