Harvest Festival

Billingham and Stockton Foodbank came to school to collect our Harvest Festival donations. Thankyou again to all our generous Hartburn families for supporting this very worthy cause.

Our first Nursery Stay & Play

Our Nursery children and parents enjoyed their first Stay & Play sessions this week.

We must ask for safety reasons that children remove earrings for PE.

If your child cannot remove their own earrings please can you ensure they do not have them in on their PE days.

Our preloved stall on Tuesday was a great success

We raised £123 !

Thankyou for all your donations and support.

Religion in the Shang Dynasty

Dear Bonnie,

I am writing to you about my beliefs. So...

First of all, lets tell you about the oracle bones, so, people like Fu Hao, the queen, can write on the ox bones. The words on the bones are questions for the gods.

Secondly, all the sacrifices that have happened are just imperible. On tot time I made 3 hole sacrifices which are food, drink and hope.

Thirdly, the ancestors were so important the are, well awesome. The head of gods is shandi, scary, I know.

Fourthly, they worshipped quite a bit to the ancestors who were very important.

Nursery & Reception met some important people who help us this week, our local fire brigade.

The children got to listen to the Firefighters talk about the important job they do in keeping us safe. The children enjoyed sitting in the engine and operating the equipment.
