Starry Night

EYFS thoroughly enjoyed their engage day in celebration of their new topic 'Starry Night'. In their pyjamas, they had hot chocolate and enjoyed reading stories by torch light and making shadows in their dens.

Year 3 children enjoyed exploring chemical reactions in science club. They investigated how gases can make things move.

Dear Diary By Amelia Ali, Class 17

Dear Diary, 16.1.25

As soon as I woke up, I unlocked the rusty gate to the allotment. When I walked down the path, a sense of pride rushed through me as I walked down the path. With seeds tucked in pockets, I set out on a job. Carefully, I planted them all in neat rows, carrots, cabbages, potatoes and strawberries! Once I was done, I headed into my tool shed for a well-deserved cuppa sitting on my little wooden bench. I admired all my hard work. I'm going to sleep now, my back is sore aching and my hands are sore - it was worth it though! I can't wait to go back and check on them.

Dear Diary, 17.1.25

Absolute DISASTER!!! I can't believe all my hard work has been ruined. I was up early with the birds because I was excited to see all the vegetables in my allotment. Full of excitement, I pushed open the gate and rushed over to my veg patch. Ahhh, all I could see was ripped up rows of carrots shredded cabbages and mushed up strawberries - my heart sank. All my hard work was had been destroyed by an animal, it was a rabbit, I could tell by the little foot prints left in the soil.

Dear Diary, 18.1.25

In a better mood, I woke up and went straight to my allotment. I opened the rusty gate and walked over to my allotment destroyed vegetables. I started to dig them up and called my friends to come over and vegetables and fixed the fence. Although this was a bit of a setback, I actually enjoyed today, spending time with my mates! After lots of laughs and hard work, the job was done! Hopefully, no more pesky rabbits will visit my veg patch now. I'm looking forward to eating the carrots with my friends. In a lovely soup! Goodnight, munch, munch.

Rising Stars !

Well done Evie Waters Y5 who recently achieved her Black belt in Jujitsu. Evie was the youngest child there and has been training for the last 5 years. She had to do both a written and physical assessment to pass.

Martha Dye Y1 and Ava Mecheri R are dedicated members of Razzamataz Theatre School. They hosted their annual Festive Awards event recently, recognising the outstanding work from students. We are delighted to hear that Martha won this year's award for Mini of the Year and Ava won this year's award for Minis Excellence in Dance!
