Christmas Craft Sessions

Thankyou to all the Parents/Carers who attended the Christmas Craft sessions last week.

We hope you enjoyed the sessions as much as the children did.

Thankyou as always for your support.

Help us help others

nitelight CIC

Homelessness can affect almost anyone and can range from living on the streets to sofa surfing to living in a hostel, bed and breakfast or hotel. This Christmas we would like to help some of the 900 homeless in our local area of Stockton-on-Tees.

We will be working with NitelightCIC, a local charity who support the most vulnerable in our area. Any donations are welcome but recommended items are:

Help to keep warm

- Cup a soups
- Hot chocolate sachets
- Gloves
- Hand warmers
- Woolly Hat

A small Christmas gift for an adult or child

- Puzzle book
- Colouring book
- Pens
- Chocolate
- Sweets
- Small toy

Toiletries for either adults or children

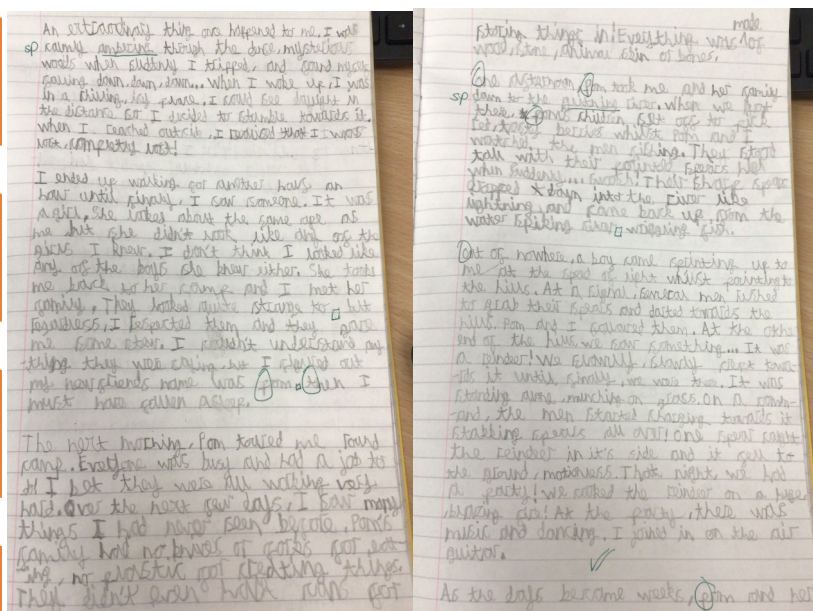

- Hairbrush
- Toothpaste
- Toothbrush
- Flannel
- Soap
- Roll on deodorant
- Sanitary products

Boxes for donations will be in the playground from 8th – 12th December.

Well done Jade !

Jade Y5 has been dancing at Janet Dickinson School of Dance since she was in nursery and the dance school has been a big part in her blooming with confidence.

Jade has just achieved 3 awards from the dance exams she did in July. She passed them all and achieved a distinction in her Grade 1 ballet exam.

Fantastic work Jade !
